

"HEW TO THE LINE LET THE CHIPS FALL WHERE THEY MAY."

"Voter," in the Greensboro Daily Patriot, writes some of the truest and wisest words we have read in many days. There are two Radicals running in Guilford county for two county offices, who say that because they are "clever" some Democrats will vote for them. Referring to this claim, he says:

The man who claims to be a Democrat and votes for any of the Radical nominees is no more of a Democrat than if he voted the whole Radical ticket. The Radical nominees will all vote for each other, and all alike are enemies to the Democratic party and its principles of home rule, and protection to the masses against monopolies. Some are attempting to sell their political craft under religious canvas, and use this as a subterfuge and stab Democracy, which they never fail to do when opportunity offers. No true Democrat will be thus led off, but will vote the full Democratic ticket and work for its success.

A "scratcher" is doing more damage to his race than if he were to join the Radical party openly, for if he openly joined the Radicals he would be known and guarded against. Let all true Democrats repel puny appeals on personal grounds, coming from their enemies in pious garb, and vote fairly and squarely the Democratic ticket.

EVERY man ought to be pig or pup. Trying to be both destroys the capacity to be truly either. If a man in Eastern North Carolina can so far lose his self-respect as to be a Radical, let him vote the Radical ticket and get down in the dirt if he prefers it. But if a man pretends to be a decent man and a Democrat, let him show it by voting the STRAIGHT ticket. If he can't do that, let him make haste to go and join the Radical party and be false to himself and his family.

Every one of the thousand Democrats who were here at the State Convention of Democratic Clubs was deeply interested in the fight in Wake county. Many asked about the prospects and every one said that it was a shame for any man who called himself a Democrat to vote for a Radical. And so it is!

Don't postpone it, but go and register to-day.

HON. B. H. BUNN

Has Opened Headquarters in Raleigh and Is Sending Out Documents.

Our Congressman from the 4th District, Capt. B. H. Bunn, while in our city during this week established his headquarters in the Henry Building, and clerks are now busily sending out papers, documents, &c., to his constituents throughout the District. Mr. Broughton, chairman of the Congressional Ex. Com., informs us that speaking appointments for Mr. Bunn have been made throughout the District, embracing every week day and often at night from Tuesday night until election day. He will make a vigorous campaign and will be elected before Prof. Melver gets half way around the District. There is walking ahead of Prof. Melver.

BEGGING FOR NEGRO VOTES.
The Begging Done Not in the Light of Day or of Gas—but in the Uncertain Light of the Moon.

There was a moonlight speaking in the city last night. It was a moonlight speaking because the moon would shine. The speakers would probably have preferred darkness rather than even the pale light of Luna, in order that the motley appearance of the assembling "followers" might be perfectly concealed.

But the moon shone; and the playing of a band and the firing of sky rockets caused about fifty or sixty negroes to assemble in the Second ward to hear some Radicals speak.

The speaking was opened by J. Rowan Rogers, Radical candidate for sheriff. He compared the Republican party to the Scots in the days of Bruce, who had no newspapers; and when their liberties were endangered, would sound a trumpet and call the people together.

He said that he hoped to be one Republican who would handle the money honestly. He laid emphasis on the one. He didn't speak long; said he wanted all the votes he could get, white and black, Republican and Democrat.

When he had finished the negroes called out—some for Upchurch—some for Stewart Ellison.

Ellison evidently was the preference and spoke first. He said that this appointment was made for him and John Williamson.

The CHRONICLE couldn't stand this sort of stuff and left while he was speaking. Purnell and Upchurch were on hand and probably spoke afterwards, begging the negroes for their votes.

A HANDSOME CHURCH ORGAN
Just Received at the Church of the Good Shepherd—A Recital to be Given.

The congregation of the Church of the Good Shepherd has received its handsome new organ, of the Stevens make. Mr. Will H. Sanborn, president of Claremont College at Hickory, from whom it was purchased, is here putting it up. It is expected that it will be in readiness by the latter part of next week, when an organ recital will be given to the public by a number of Raleigh's most talented performers. The CHRONICLE need not state that it will be a delightful evening, and that every lover of music will be delightfully entertained. The programme will be published in the CHRONICLE later.

Raleigh sorely needs two features—a good band and a good additional auditorium. The incidents of the past five days have shown the need of these things more forcibly than words can show it. What will you do about it? Will some musical gentleman, or some member of the old band, inform the CHRONICLE on what conditions a band may be organized and sustained here?

His Honor Judge Boykin has for two days entirely disregarded the positive order of his physician in holding court when physically unable to do so. Thursday he held court while he had a high fever, and yesterday, in the teeth of the physician's orders, he did so again. Several short addresses by pastors and prominent laymen may also be expected. This is intended to be a permanent institution, and doubtless will be largely attended by members of all congregations, especially the young people. It will surely be productive of great good. The services will not extend beyond one hour.

Then he embarked in the grocery business for a while, which he sold out, and was out of business for about ten years. In March, 1890, he re-entered the grocery business with Mr. James D. Carroll, at 204 East Martin street. Soon after he succumbed to ill health, and never recovered.

and perseverance will accomplish any and all things that are in the power of man. "Never look back, never falter, press forward to goal" has been and ever will be our motto in this race for mercantile fame. In dress goods and trimmings we are making an effort to please the trade, and to do this and gain the high position which we hope to obtain in the estimation of the ladies of Raleigh as dress goods dealers, we know that we must offer only the latest things out, and all the latest things out, and that we must offer them for less money than other merchants; and we know that if we continue to do this, that in the end we are bound to sell quite all the dress goods sold in Raleigh. Now, this looks as if we wanted the whole earth, but we don't. It's the dress goods trade we want, and it's the dress goods trade we are getting. Any kind of dress goods that can be found at other place can be found at our store, and any kind of dress trimmings that can be found at any other place can be found at our store, and for less money. See them at SWINDELL'S.

In order to test the comparative merits of the various newspaper advertising mediums, and at the same time benefit the readers thereof, we shall consider this advertisement for one dollar in payment toward purchase of $20 or more worth of goods, if cut out and presented at time of purchase, either in person or by mail. The New Discovery.

You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it, you are one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery never after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with cough, cold or any Throat, Lung or Chest trouble, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded. Trial bottles free at John Y. MacRae's drug store.

The Second Consignment.

That popular and reliable old veteran meat man, J. Schwartz, has just received a second consignment of those magnificent beef cattle on which he has made such a reputation. "Schwartz's beef" has become a household word now, and it invariably means the best beef that can be had from anywhere. He frequently makes a parade of his beef cattle, and when they go up the street there is a rush to the doors to see them. He always shows superb animals, and people's mouths water for the meats which he sells over his counters. He makes a specialty of corned beef (his own make) and delivers it at from eight to ten cents per pound. He gives strict attention to other meats and his pork is as fine as the finest. He serves out the choicest pork at from ten to twelve cents. He sells beef from 6 to 8 to 10 to 12¢ cts. Every is invited to stop at his meat market on Fayetteville street and see it and be convinced that he keeps the finest beef in the city. sept. 191t.

THE WORLD'S COMMERCE.

New York, September 26.—Messrs. Hubbard, Price & Company, in their cotton circular to night say: The elimination of the short interest, which was effected to-day upon the alarming reports of damage by rain throughout the Atlantic States, has removed one of the principal elements of strength in the market, and as the foreign news of this morning gave evidence of a disposition on the part of Liverpool to follow our advance of yesterday, the day has been one of reaction here. The market opened at about three points decline, and has declined almost continuously the entire day. While the news from the South has not in any way modified the earlier estimates of the decline in the condition which has taken place during the past three or four weeks, the fear of heavy receipts and light money has been sufficient to deter any fresh investment and the market has sagged slowly under the liquidation of the long interest.

Receipts at the ports estimated at 35,000 bales, against 24,402 bales last week, and 32,354 bales last year.
